

Instructions

The following websites are mainly free and can support your reading activity providing you have a device and internet access. You may need to register for some of the sites. Please ensure that you are staying safe online.

Online Safety

Parents

Children & Young People

E-Readers

Enfield Library OneDrive – free access if you already have a membership with all Enfield libraries. It's very easy to apply for membership to Enfield libraries if you don't have one, apply here!

<https://new.enfield.gov.uk/services/libraries/digital-library/>

The Literature Network

<http://www.online-literature.com/>

Many Books

<https://manybooks.net/>

Open Library

<https://openlibrary.org/>

Project Gutenberg

<https://www.gutenberg.org/>

Audio Books (SEN)

Calibre Audio – Available for those with a visual disability.

<https://www.calibreaudio.org.uk/>

Listening Books (small fee required) – Audio books specifically for those with a disability or illness that prevents hard copy reading.

<https://www.listening-books.org.uk/>

Lit2Go - free online collection of stories and poems in Mp3 (audiobook) format.

<https://etc.usf.edu/lit2go/>

Sync – Audio Books

<https://www.audiobooksync.com/>

Limited Free Access during School Closure

Amazon Kindle - The link below will direct you to a limited range of free titles.

Free Kindle Books

Audible – Currently offering a limited range of audio books for free. However, they have a large range of audio books for a monthly charge.

<https://stories.audible.com/start-listen>

Useful Websites

Apple & Snakes - an archive of spoken word poetry.

<https://www.youtube.com/user/applesandsnakes?feature=CAoQwRs%3D>

AR Book Find – Use this database website to check if the books you're reading are on Accelerated Reader

<https://www.arbookfind.co.uk/default.aspx>

Authorfy – This site provides you with helpful resources by well-known authors to help you enjoy their books more and help you become a better writer.

<https://authorfy.com/>

Authors Live - Authors Live is a series of live webcasts, presented in partnership with Scottish Book Trust, featuring some of the biggest names writing books for children today.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episodes/p006v267/authors-live>

BBC Bite Size – A huge amount of resources including quizzes, videos & games.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize>

Book Trust – This site provides a huge amount of support for families and young people to help and encourage reading.

<https://www.booktrust.org.uk/>

Coronavirus – The following websites offer explanations about coronavirus in many languages including French & Turkish.

Children's Commissioner

<https://www.christineborst.com/>

British Red Cross

International Children's Digital Library – digital access to children's books aimed the age range 3-13 years old in 20 different languages including Arabic, Croatian, Polish, Portuguese & Swahili.

<http://en.childrenslibrary.org/>

Love Reading 4 Kids – A comprehensive site of reading lists and book reviews on children's literature.

<https://www.lovereadng4kids.co.uk/>

Poetry by Heart – a catalogue resource promoting classic and contemporary poetry through competitions.

<https://www.poetrybyheart.org.uk/>

National Literacy Trust – Virtual School Library: access to free e-books by popular authors videos and recommendations.

<https://wordsforlife.org.uk/virtual-school-library/>

World Book Day – Another great resource for all ages with extracts and author videos.

<https://www.worldbookday.com/>

Young Minds – tips and mental health on dealing with your mental health.

<https://youngminds.org.uk/>

This is not an exhaustive list, there are many other platforms such as YouTube and many author's websites that offer different resources so feel free to try them too.

January 2021